CODE OF ETHICS

As members in good standing of Stanly County Home Builders Association, we believe in and accept the responsibilities and obligations inherent in our provision of housing, light commercial construction and other services. Consistent with NAHB's Code of Ethics contained in its constitution, we support and affirm the following objectives:

To conduct business affairs with professionalism and skill

To provide the best housing value possible

To protect the consumer through the use of quality materials and construction practices backed integrity and service

To provide housing with high standards of safety, sanitation and livability

To meet all financial obligations in a responsible manner

To comply with the spirit and letter of business contracts and manage employees, subcontractors and suppliers with fairness and honor

To keep informed regarding public policies and other essential information which affect our business interests and those of the building industry as a whole

To comply with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies for the health, safety and welfare of the community

To keep honesty as our guiding business policy

To provide timely response to items covered under warranty

To support and abide by the decisions of the Association in promoting and enforcing this Code of Ethics

Members assume the responsibilities in this Code of Ethics freely and solemnly and are mindful that these responsibilities are part of their obligation as members of the Stanly County Home Builders Association. We also believe that homeownership should be within the reach of all Americans. Finally, because we hold inviolate the free enterprise system and American way of life, We pledge our support to our fellow members, builders and associates, our local, state and National Associations and all related industries concerned with the preservation of inalienable rights and freedoms.
